Assistance to Seniors

"Never underestimate your ability to make someone's life BETTER – even if you never know it."

Greg Louganis

Do you want to make a difference in the lives of your community's fastest-growing population?

CHATS-Community & Home Assistance to Seniors is a leading charitable organization that provides in-home support and multicultural community programs to enable older adults to live best at home and in their communities. CHATS advocates for and delivers high-quality, person-centred home and community services, providing dignity and choice for ageing at home. We are proud to deliver services to more than 8,500 seniors and family caregivers throughout York Region and South Simcoe.

We are currently recruiting:
Board of Directors & Committee Members
2022 - 2023

CHATS is seeking expressions of interest from those who share our commitment to ensuring effective, quality-based person-centred care and support for older adults and their caregivers within the healthcare system and in the community. Volunteer Board and governance experience is an asset, as are individuals who have strong communication, collaboration, and consensus-building skills.

CHATS welcomes applicants reflective of our communities' cultural and gender diversity in York Region and South Simcoe. Successful candidates will also support, and be involved with, CHATS' fundraising activities, with an ability to open doors within communities served by CHATS.

If you live or work in York Region or South Simcoe and are willing to donate between 3-5 hours each month to make a difference in the lives of seniors and their caregivers, please forward your resume to Saskia Sanchez-Ferrer ssanchez-ferrer@chats.on.ca by Friday, February 4, 2022. Qualified candidates will be contacted for an interview.
