

Where ideas work

Ministry of Social Development and Poverty Reduction

This position's primary focus is within the community of Trail; however, the successful candidate may be required to provide service to the surrounding area. This position has full time on-site requirements.

Community Integration Specialist

$64,123.59 - $72,674.35 annually

The Ministry of Social Development and Poverty Reduction focuses on reducing poverty, creating opportunities, and increasing inclusion. The Service Delivery Division provides income and disability assistance services online, by phone, or face to face in our communities. We strive to ensure our services are reliable, responsive, inclusive, and accessible to all British Columbians who need our support.

Community Integration Specialists work in the community using in-reach and outreach approaches to connect individuals with services. This includes providing income assistance and helping navigate multiple services and systems for individuals who may be experiencing homelessness, and be suffering from trauma, mental illness and addiction issues.

Watch this video to hear from current Community Integration Specialists about the work they do.

For information about the Indigenous Applicant Advisory Service, please visit: Indigenous Applicant Advisory Service - Province of British Columbia \(gov.bc.ca\).

Qualifications for this role include:

- Secondary school graduation and three (3) years, related experience OR
- Evergreen Certificate and four (4) years, related experience OR
- An equivalent combination of education and experience may be considered.

Preference may be given to applicants who have one (1) or more of the following:

- Experience working in community organizations and/or with multiple service providers.
- Experience using a trauma-informed approach to client service.
- Direct or indirect lived experience of addiction, poverty, homelessness or mental health challenges.
- Due to the nature of this role, preference may be given to qualified applicants who identify as Indigenous (First Nations status or non-status, Inuit and/or Métis), LGBTQ2S+, a person with a disability, and/or a visible minority, with the required combination of education and experience

For more information, a complete list of qualifications and to apply online by July 7th, 2024, please go to: <https://bcpublicservice.hua.hrsmart.com/hr/ats/Posting/view/113972>